THE CLASS OF 1982 PROUDLY DEDICATES THIS VOLUME TO

FATHER JOHN TAMALIS

Father Tamalis' service to both the campus and the surrounding communities extends far beyond the realm of priesthood. With his unique ability to motivate campus-community interaction, "Fr. T" teaches us to help one another.

Through various programs, an unwritten reciprocal contract is reached between campus and surrounding communities. By students participating in such program as the United Campus Ministries, Big Brother/Big Sister, Adopt-A-Grandparent, and numerous others of which Father Tamalis advises, we are given responsibility and the opportunity to further interpersonal skills that are so essential for all aspects of life. The community also receives its awards from this interaction. Typically neglected sects of society such as the underprivileged, youth, and the elderly find meaningful friendship and a chance, at least temporarily, to break from the confines of their limited worlds.

Yet, these activities do so much more than to just help others—they help us to help ourselves. Although there are alternate ways to discover and develop our fullest potential, Fr. T fosters a method of helping others at the same time. What makes Fr. T such a special person is an intangible that is exceedingly difficult to describe. Whatever, that intangible is, however, it gives him that vanishing ability to show us all a way to find ourselves and grow to reach our fullest potentials.

When you think about it, what more can anyone do?

Father Tamalis, we are proud to dedicate our 1982 ARROW to not only you, but to all that you stand for as well. Good Luck.

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to, do you know?

Do you get what you're hoping for?
 When you look behind you, there's no open door.
 What are you hoping for, do you know?

Once we were standing still in time,
chasing the fantasies that filled our minds.
And you know how I loved you but my spirit was free, laughing at the questions you once asked of me.

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to, do you know?

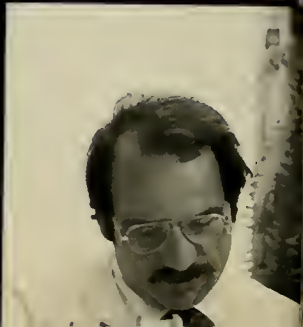

Now looking back at all we planned,
we let so many dreams just slip through our hands.
Why must we wait so long before we see how sad the answers to those questions can be?

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to, do you know?

LYCOMING COLLEGE
WILLIAMSPORT, PA. 17701

Dear Seniors,

Several years ago I watched a bird fly anxiously to and fro over an open field which only days before had been a forest. The anxiety of the bird grew as he flew back and forth within invisible walls, never once venturing beyond the boundaries of the former glen.

Birds, even more than humans, are territorial creatures. They have a strong sense of place. Some species are bound by very narrow horizons. When the conditions within those boundaries are radically changed, they become disoriented and fearful.

To feel at home in life we all depend upon a sense of place. Your years on the Locoming campus have helped meet that need. I hope the familiar paths across the quad remain etched in your memory and that you will feel as much at home here fifty years from now as you do today. Be sure your sense of place always includes this place.

As changes come--and changes surely will--I also hope you will not be restricted by invisible walls or made anxious by broadened horizons. The fact that you learned to fly at Locoming should encourage you to soar with confidence. Keep your nose in the wind!

Sincerely,

Frederick E. Blumer

ACTIVITIES

ALL CAMPUS PICNIC

Originally planned for September 6, the All Campus Picnic was postponed until the 13th because of rain. Due to the postponement, the picnic was held on the quad, instead of Little League Park.

Highlights of the afternoon were music by "Sun Dog," a picnic feast prepared by the cafeteria crew, yummy deserts baked by the women of Lycoming, and the annual egg toss featuring Dean Wozniak and Dean Caligiuri.

You're all I've got tonight.

The clever girl clown face.

Good girls don't, but I do.

The burgers are better at Burger King.

Lonesome loser

We're an American band.

I want to be your woman, if you'll be my man.

Hit me with your best shot

Workin', workin', workin' day and night

Sunshine on my shoulders makes me sunburn

All Summer long

Daydream believer

LYCOPOLY

As part of the Freshmen "Orientation Too" program, the annual game, Lycopoly, was held in the gymnasium. Lycoming's version of Monopoly gives Freshmen the opportunity to compete against each other for prizes such as a pizza or ice cream party, T-shirts, etc. Faculty, advisors, and LGA's act as team coaches. A team consists of a banker, a runner, a dice roller and a board piece. This year the Freshmen girls wiped the Freshmen guys with Asbury 2 in first place and Asbury 3 in second.

Ly'n eyes

Dirty deeds done dirt cheap

Here I am, on my own again.

Let the good times roll

I need a woman 'bout twice my size

TAIWAN DANCE COMPANY

Dance fever

Everybody was kung-fu fighting.

You light up my life.

Thanks, I needed that!

I'm turning Chinese, I really think so.

As part of the seventh annual tour of the United States, the Youth Goodwill Mission from Taiwan performed in Clark Chapel on September 27. The fifteen member entourage, selected from 104 universities, were hosted by Lycoming students during their three day visit.

Passed down through the ages, martial arts is an integral part of the daily exercise for the Taiwanese youth. The dance program was performed in three parts. The first part was called Chinese boxing, which depicted the original form of the art through dances of various animals. Part two highlighted their communion with nature through Chinese classical and folk dances; and part three, Taiwan the Beautiful, conveyed their outlook of the life in the present.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming '81 arrived earlier than usual this year, on September 25. The weekend activities began with a golf and tennis tournament Friday afternoon. The "Morgan Valley Road Band" entertained Friday night, while Theta Chi held their traditional Ox Roast at the football field.

Saturday featured many departmental activities- the annual Antique Auto Display and the parade of queens to the football field. The Loyalsock Township High School Band performed the pre-game show. Special half-time ceremonies honored Dorothy Streefer for her many years of service of Lycoming College and revealed Susan Ciampa the 1981 Homecoming Queen. The afternoon ended in triumph as Lycoming topped Wilkes 35-7. Sunday wound down after a special Homecoming service.

PARENT'S WEEKEND

Just the two of us

Daddy's little girl

Father and son

I've got all my sisters with me.

Skippity do-da

Give it to me baby

A reception in Pennington lounge opened Parent's Weekend festivities on October 9, at which parents, faculty and administration had the opportunity to meet one another. Saturday activities included Dr. Erickson's sky show presentation in the planetarium, a faculty-student recital, and the football game against Delaware Valley.

"Changing Lanes," a jazz, country, and blue grass band entertained in the coffeehouse Saturday night, and the theatre department presented "Unsung Cole," a musical revue of Cole Porter's songs. Special Sunday church services complete the weekend activities.

It's a family affair.

He ain't heavy, he's my brother.

Rock, skate, roll, bounce

Dim all the lights sweet darlin'.

Life in the fast lane

We are family.

PUMPKIN CARVING CONTEST

Students and administration are invited to participate in the Annual Pumpkin Carving Contest held in the Wertz Student Center. Anyone possessing skill and talent at cutting and decorating are urged to attend. It isn't the thrill of winning that makes this event such a success; it's more a matter of bringing back those memories of childhood.

Proud pumpkin carvers

Some win and some lose.

Making the most of it

The mood is right; the spirits high.

One of many winners

When I was young, I never needed anyone.

Just watch it kid!

BIG'S AND LIL'S CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN

Don't let anyone fool you. Halloween is a treat for everyone, both big and small. The annual costume party is one part of the Big and Little Brother and Sister program at Lycoming. We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

What child is this?

Silent night: Holy Night.

Santa Claus is coming to town.

CHRISTMAS TREE TRIMMING

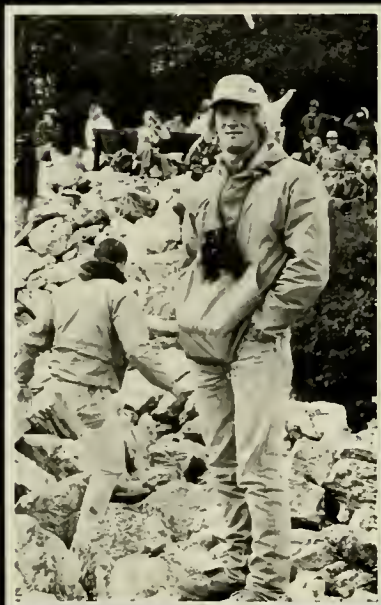

On December 6 the annual Christmas Tree Trimming Party was held in Burchfield Lounge. Students, faculty, and administration decorated two six foot Christmas trees, which were placed on both sides of the fireplace. Santa made a special appearance and distributed candy to the faculty and administration's children.

FINER MOMENTS

Catch any flies?

Life is a rock.

Put one foot in front of the other.

I'll do any thing that you want me to.

Does anyone know what time it is?

Lady, you bring me up when I'm down, up when I'm down.

Yo, Bucko, you want a girl-friend?

Let's groove tonight, share the spice of life.

Just when I thought I could stand on my own

Hello my friend, hello.

We've come together on a special day, that's the way of the world.

You can speak your mind, but not on my time.

We come from planet earth.

I've been waiting for a girl like you to come into my life.

I'm on top of the world.

Stay young at heart.

"The most effective force in driving home the needs of the student body is that force channeled through the student government. The reason for its effectiveness is that S.A.L.C. seeks to unite the voices of the students into one common voice which can then be carried with force. But as is the case with most things worth achieving, something must be sacrificed — time and effort."

Thank you, seniors, for sacrificing your time and effort this worthy goal — driving home the needs of the Student Body.

LYCOMING COLLEGE

WILLIAMSPORT, PA. 17701

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CLASS OF 1982

Congratulations upon your accomplishments--you are now the proud possessors of a Liberal Arts and Sciences education.

It is important to note that the services of Lycoming College do not end after you have been graduated. Alumni are welcome to make use of programs offered by the Career Development Center and the Alumni Office.

The Career Development Center will continue to send you information on job opportunities until you find meaningful employment. We do ask that you notify the Career Development Center after you have obtained a position so that we may direct our efforts towards those who are still job hunting.

Just as we hope to keep you informed of new developments on campus, through our Alumni Office and Career Development Center mailings, we hope that you will do the same for us. It is imperative that we have a current mailing address in our files! If you change your residence, place of employment, or complete additional schooling, may we be the first to know?

In addition, we ask that you help your alma mater by informing us of any job openings in your place of employment so that we might assist future graduates in their job hunt. Many alumni have volunteered to provide information on their careers to undergraduates through the "voice of experience" program and by talking directly with them.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

"Do you know where you're going to? Do you like the things that life is showing you? Where are you going to, do you know? Do you get what you're hoping for? When you look behind you there's no open door. What are you hoping for, do you know?"

After graduation, each one of us will be going in different directions — starting new and exciting careers, continuing on to graduate school, and maybe staying at Lyco to take some extra courses. But whatever we do, most of us will cut the apron strings from home and go out on our own working at being successful in life's future endeavors.

What we become is up to us. We alone, must make our dreams and hopes come true, for no one else will. Stand up seniors, for you now have gained experience — academically and socially — to play the game called life! I personally wish each of you continued success and happiness in all that you do.

I would like to recognize the following people who have helped me successfully complete this year's yearbook.
